

Job Title: Photographer/Videographer (Student Worker)

Location: Roy Howard Community Journalism Center, The University of Southern Mississippi (Hattiesburg Campus)

Position Type: Part-Time (20 hours per week, flexible scheduling)

About the Role

The Roy Howard Community Journalism Center is seeking a Photographer/Videographer to help visually capture and tell compelling stories. This role is ideal for students passionate about photojournalism, videography, and digital storytelling. As a Photographer/Videographer, you will be responsible for shooting high-quality photos and videos and editing visual content for various platforms.

Key Responsibilities

- Capture high-quality photos and videos for news stories, events, and community coverage.
- Edit visual content using Adobe programs and other relevant tools.
- Ensure proper lighting, framing, and composition to produce engaging visual storytelling.
- Work closely with reporters and editors to create multimedia content that complements written stories.
- Organize and archive media assets for easy access and future use.
- Adapt content for multiple platforms, including social media, web, and broadcast.

What We're Looking For

- Strong photography and videography skills, including composition and lighting techniques
- Experience with Adobe programs (or willingness to learn)
- Ability to shoot in various settings
- Strong attention to detail and ability to meet deadlines
- Ability to collaborate with journalists and editors to enhance storytelling
- Knowledge of social media trends and best practices for visual content (preferred)

Benefits of This Role

- Gain hands-on experience in photojournalism and video production.
- Build a professional portfolio of published work.
- Work in a collaborative, fast-paced newsroom environment.
- Develop storytelling skills while covering real stories that impact the community.

How to Apply

- Interested students should apply at www.rhcjcnews.com/jobs.
- We encourage applicants from all backgrounds to apply. No prior journalism experience is required — just a passion for storytelling and a willingness to learn!
